Read the story below and answer the Questions 33 to Question 40.

Simon was a happy-go-lucky boy. He was very playful and had not been revising his school works regularly. So, when the school final examination was only a day away, he decided to spend the whole evening studying.

He had not paid attention in class lately and there were many lessons that he had missed. He tried to study the lessons carefully. However, they were more difficult to understand without a teacher to explain. The hours passed quickly and before he knew it, it was already three in the morning.

The next morning, his mother woke him up as it was time for school. He got out of bed unwillingly. He was ready for school but felt very tired.

When he got to class, he was feeling very sleepy. Since the teacher had not come in yet, Simon decided to shut his eyes for a short while. When he opened his eyes again, his teacher was standing in front of him. The test was over and he had slept through the test!
